SATURDAY MAY 28.

The late Judge Peirce, of Philadelphia, left his entire estate to his wife and children. The fact that a man in these days should leave all his property to his own wife and children, seems to attract general attention and create surprise.

"The able democratic editors of the country are in a peck of trouble in regard to the movements of Mr. Blaine. They are afraid he intends to visit Europe this summer, and are at the same time apprehensive that he expects to remain in the United States."

Col. W. O. Bradley, the republican candidate for governor of Kentucky, says that if the party can add about 20,000 votes to the Blaine vote of 119,000, they will carry the state at the August election. The colonel is diligently stumping the state against "Bolivar; Betty and the Baby."

The progress of civil service reform down in Tennessee, is illustrated by a remark from the Atlanta Constitution: "Whatever else may be said of Gov. Taylor, of Tennessee, he is a good democrat. He announces that there is not a single republican in a state office in Tennessee. Andrew Jackson lived in that state."

James Lick died in San Francisco ten years ago, leaving in the hands of trustees an estate of about $3,000,000, to be divided among various charitable and scientific societies. The estate is yet unsettled, but the trustees have drawn over $100,000 in salaries and have paid out nearly $200,000 in lawyer's fees.

The compliments of the New York World to Attorney General Garland: "Attorney General Garland says that he means to retire from public life at the end of the present administration. He does not covet a seat on the supreme bench, and would not accept it if it were offered him. In this resolution Mr. Garland seems to have the support of the entire American republic."

The output of iron in Canada is only 60,000 tons a year, while 250,000 are required. It cannot therefore be for the benefit of the Canadian people that the dominion government has doubled the tariff tax on iron. This is one of the many foolish ways that the dominion has of burdening the people. It is simply a scheme to support an extravagant government at the expense of the people.

After the first of July pool and billiard tables in saloons are prohibited in Texas. The purpose of the law is to deprive the saloons of their means of attracting customers to their bars. Meanwhile a hot campaign is going on, respecting the prohibition amendment, which is voted upon in August. The Waco Advance, a prohibition advocate, is very violent in its language, while the postmaster of the town takes the other side, and declares that the effort to enforce prohibition will cause the killing of enough prohibitionists to dam up the Brazos river.

Another tribute to the administration of the New York Sun: If Mr. Cleveland did but know it, and could have known it earlier, one drop of the sterling, honest democratic reform which abolishes unnecessary offices and runs the Government at the smallest expense consistent with the highest efficiency is worth all great Neptune's ocean full of Chinese sham reforms. It is only some hundred thousand dollars a year that the consolidation of internal revenue districts saves —a small sum compared to the annual charge Mr. Cleveland laid upon the country in signing the Mexican Pension bill.

The state board of supervision, in session at Madison this week audited and allowed the following sums for the support of the various state institutions for the month ending May 27: State hospital for the insane, $7,194.80; northern hospital for the insane, $8,305.88; school for the deaf, $3,645.63; school for the blind, $1,535.18; industrial school for boys, $8,229.75; state prison, $3,918.63; state public school at Sparta, $1,553.28; total, $24 387 15. In the claim of Jefferson county against Milwaukee county for the care of an insane person alleged to properly belong to the latter, the board decided the case in favor of Jefferson county, and allowed the claim of $82 11. In a similar claim by Polk county against Barron county for $407.87, for the care of a patient thought to belong to the latter county, the board decided it not proven that the patient belonged to Barron county, and refused to allow the claim. Next Wednesday, the board will open the bids for the erection of three new buildings at the state school for dependent children, at Sparta.

DEMOCRATIC AVERSION TO OFFICE.

The telegraph wires have lately been burdened with tidings which, in novelty and significance, have amused the nation. Among the apothegms which have ever been dear to the democratic heart and which have ever been like the Polar star to the homesick mariner, these ancient sentiments, which have co-existed with the democratic party, are the choicest and most cherished of all its cardinal principles, namely, "To the victors belong the spoils" and "Few die and none resign." Every observing American citizen knows the faithfulness and the conscientiousness with which its members have through adversity and prosperity adhered to those principles. But still another idea has been held to with the same firmness and tenacity throughout the past three generations, and that idea is to always accept without question and without hesitation, any office which may be within grasp. The mind will not readily recall an instance of any prominent member of that political organization declining an office. It is true that Horatio Seymour once declared "Your candidate I cannot be," but after loudly swearing he would never consent, he consented. Residents of Janesville will recall incidents of similar nature in this city.

But a panic or a cyclone or a pestilence seems to have recently struck the democratic party. From all quarters of the compass and from every section of the union and from every branch of the organization there seems to be an unconquerable aversion to the acceptance of office. Whether it is because of the general demoralization produced by the management of President Cleveland or to any one of a dozen other causes which will suggest themselves to the reflecting mind—cannot be certainly determined. It is enough to know that since the death of Judge Woods, two eminent democratic statesmen have publicly declined to permit the judicial mantle of the deceased to be placed upon their shoulders. In other words, in less than a months time two democratic leaders have refused to accept an honorable office. And when such men as Judge Taurman and Attorney-General Garland take this stand what course can the common herd be expected to follow? Is there danger of the disease assuming an epidemic form and a universal refusal to hold office on the part of the rank and file of the party to follow? Let no such danger be apprehended at present although future developments will be awaited with interest. Two declinations in a month would mean twenty-four in a single year, and if that proportion is continued it would not take profound mathematical skill to foretell the date when all the offices under the present administration will be held by fourth rate men.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AND SALOONS.

The Evening Wisconsin, which seems to be a chronic grumbler, and has only one idea, and which frequently gets sick in nursing that one, has this to say about the anti-saloon movement:

The anti saloon republican party still lives and moves to the extent of being able to hold a public meeting now and then. It held such a meeting in Cooper Union, New York, Wednesday night, one half of the audience being made up of women. It is the apparent mission of this fledgling anti-saloon republican party, on the other hand, to spend itself in fighting the saloon evil by methods practicable or impracticable but always zealous, to the utter neglect, if need be, of all other public and party interests.

There is a good deal of saloon odor about the foregoing extracts from the Wisconsin, but they may have been written at a time when the writer was not really responsible for what he wrote.

In the first place, there is no such an organization as the anti-saloon republican party. And in the second place, the anti-saloon republican movement seeks to restrict the liquor traffic by practical means—not by one particular way or not at all—and it further aims to rid the country of the influence of the saloon in politics. As the Evening Wisconsin charges that these anti-saloon republicans are men of one idea, or rather the the organization is one of one idea, let us see who are some of its officers. Among the vice-presidents of the anti-saloon republican movement, are such stalwart republicans as Whitelaw Reid, Thomas C. Platt, J. M. Bundy, Chauncey M. Depew, Stephen B. Elkins, Levi P. Morton, D. O. Mills, George Bliss, the noted attorney, Thomas C. Acton, Hamilton Fish, Jr., and fifty others. Is the Evening Wisconsin's republicanism of a purer breed than the republicanism of these stalwarts, and yet they are among the vice-presidents of the league or association which that paper stigmatizes as having but one idea, and that an impracticable one.

But there are other republicans of national fame who are in full sympathy with the anti-saloon republican movement. William Windom, ex-secretary of the treasury, and Theodore Roosevelt, are among them. Then listen to the voices of some these "pure breed" republicans, which the Evening Wisconsin infers would not belong to a movement of one idea—the anti-saloon republican movement:

Senator Edmunds, of Vermont—I heartily sympathize the object of the anti-saloon meeting and earnestly hope that republicans in every state will effectively exert themselves, as our party in Vermont does, to repress the great evil of the saloon system, not only in respect to the temperance and social welfare of the whole people, but also in respect of the very serious political evil arising from the same cause.

Senator Wilson, of Iowa—I am in full sympathy with the movement your committee represents and in all furtherance of which the said meeting has been called, and I can but hope that the method adopted may prove most powerfully effective in ridding our country of the malign presence of the saloon and the curse of the liquor traffic.

Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts.—I entirely approve the object of your meeting. If the republican party be entrusted with the power of legislation anywhere it should use that power to repress that school and nursery of vice and crime the drinking saloon.

Senator Morrill, of Vermont.—I hardly know of any measure of equal importance with that of the anti-saloon movement in which you are engaged. If the saloons of our cities and towns could be crippled and greatly diminished by a system of high license, it would be a great step in aid of morals as well as of economy.

The Evening Wisconsin quotes from the letter of ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, of whom it speaks as being one of the "pure breed", republican, these words: "I have not identified myself with your organization (though sympathizing in the main with your expressed purposes) for the reason, that I am a republican without any qualification of the term whatever."

But that paper seems to have forgotten to quote one statement from Mr. Foster for the purpose of misrepresenting him, for among other things he said was this, "that the republican party should promptly take this forward step will as certainly be the promotion of its growth and power, as right doing is always promotive of the growth and power of those who thus act."

The narrowness of the Evening Wisconsin's ideas of temperance and temperance reform, are not creditable to that paper.

A BURSTING CAR-WHEEL

PLUNGES A FREIGHT TRAIN INTO A PASSENGER COACH,

While the Trains Are Passing on Separate Tracks—Six Dead and Several Wounded —The Gotham Tenement Fire—Calling the Roll of the Opera Comique People—Effect of a Pamphlet.

ALTOONA, Pa., May 28.—Friday night as the fast line west was nearing Kittanning Point the wheel of a car on a freight train bound east burst and the car crashed into two passenger coaches with terrible effect, killing instantly four men and injuring many others. Telegrams were immediately sent to this city for physicians and all that could be procured were detailed to the wreck. The killed are as follows: Dal Graham, son of ex-Speaker Graham, Allegheny, Pa.; J. H. Stauffer, of Louisville; O. Wymer Snyder, a one legged man, Shamokin, Pa.; John Dorris, newsboy, East Liberty, Pa. Frank McCue, 15 East Thirty-third street New York city, will die; Charles Boidelman, of Brenfield, Noble county, Ind., dying.

The injured are: A. Agen, Fayetteville, N. Y., head and side, not serious; Clara Albert, Flint, Mich., slightly injured; Rev. John Alford, Beaver Falls., Pa., slight injuries; Hattie Luckett, colored, Alexandria, Va., not seriously hurt; Rev. R. H. Porter, colored, Detroit, Mich.; Edith Gase, aged 11 years, traveling with her mother, prostrated by the shock, was crushed outside the car, but not injured to any extent. No passengers occupying the sleeping-car or parlor-cars were injured. The accident was an unavoidable one and the worst that has happened for years on the Pennsylvania railroad. The injured were brought to this city and made as comfortable as possible.

SORROWING OPERA PEOPLE.

Distressing Scenes at the Opera Comique Roll-Call—An Incipient Riot.

PARIS, May 28.—Some very distressing scenes occurred at the roll-call of the actors and attaches of the Opera Comique Friday, and the occasion must long be remembered by those present. As the name of each missing one was called fresh tears flowed from the eyes of the survivors and the room was filled with the sound of stifled sobs, and the lamentations of those who could not so well restrain their feelings. As the name of M. Tasquin was called he stepped forward and answering to his name was greeted with a lavish display of gratitude and affection upon all sides, and was presented with the Cross of the Legion of Honor in recognition of his heroic conduct in assisting to save the lives of many of his companion members of the Opera Comique company.

A pamphlet was put in circulation and sold in the streets Friday evening, the moral of which is that if there had been in late years a series of ministers of public instruction and fine arts possessing as high a sense of public duty as Gen. Boulanger has displayed as minister of war, the fire which destroyed the Opera Comique could not have occurred. The pamphlet was eagerly purchased and its perusal has produced a visible effect upon the populace. All Paris turned out to witness the transfer of the corpses taken from the ruins of the theatre to the morgue. While this was in progress a gentleman passed through the crowd who was mistaken from a close resemblance for M. Berthelot, minister of public instruction and fine arts. Immediately a rush was made for him, and the cry went up, "Throw him into the Seine!" The gentleman, seeing his danger, ran for his life and took refuge in a shop, whence he emerged after the crowd had gone, and disappeared.

Telegrams have been received from Mme. Nevada and Miss Van Zandt in London, offering their services at benefit performances in aid of the sufferers, and the announcement has created a tremendous current of feeling in favor of the latter among those who were her most bitter opponents.

The official report gives the number of bodies recovered up to midnight Friday as 68. The search among the ruins is being conducted by the aid of electric lights and all possible speed is being made to reach the bodies that are visible, but not accessible. An English family of three person are missing, and it is regarded as certain that all of them perished in the flames.

ONLY ONE LIFE LOST

At the Great New York Fire—Latest Estimates of the Destruction.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The fire here Thursday night raged from 1:30 a. m. until daybreak, cremated about 1,100 horses and burned, as stated yesterday in these dispatches, seventy-five dwellings. The total loss of property is now estimated at $1,225,000, divided as follows: Railroad stables, $550,000; 1,100 horses, $250,000; 175 cars, $180,000; harness, $75,000; feed, $25,000; total, $1,080,000; Jacob Now's silk factory, $100,000; five tenements, $100,000; losses of tenants, $40,000; frame buildings, $15,000; Shantyville losses, $10,000. The insurance will be less than $500,000, of which the street car company carried $200,000, divided between 151 companies.

The sun rose upon a scene of desolation, but with the tired firemen masters of the situation. The bodies of 1,100 horses were roasting in the ruins of the stables. More than 100 families, mostly very poor people, had been rendered homeless. A number of people had been prostrated by the heat. Men, women and children wandered all night aimlessly over the ruins of their wrecked homes bereft of their all and bewildered at the crushing blow.

The only life lost was that of an elderly woman who died from fright.

Losses by the Forest Fires.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 28.—Conservative judges place the loss to the upper peninsula by the forest fires of this month at $4,500,000, not including the terrible disaster at Lake Linden, which was totally wiped out in one afternoon by the flames. Add this loss to the general ruin and the god of mammon has paid a tribute to the demon of destruction fully amounting to $7,000,000.

An Iowa Constable Jailed.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 28.—Friday morning Judge Love commanded Constable Pierce to return the car-load of beer consigned to Hurlbut, Hess & Co., seized last February, for the reason that the roads are under federal care, and also because Pierce had no warrant when he acted. Pierce demurred that the matter was pending in the state court and refused, and was at once clapped into jail. This suddenness caused Pierce to forfeit an appearance bond of $400 in a justice case, with another contempt attached. Habeas corpus proceedings have been taken in the searcher's behalf before Judge Kavanaugh, and application will be made before a federal judge to sustain the expected order of release.

A Dry Goods House Destroyed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 28.—H. P. Wasson's extensive retail dry goods establishment burned at an early hour Friday morning. He carried $110,000 worth of stock; loss about $60,000. Insurance $61,000.

A Number of Interesting Drills at the National Competition—Feat of a Southern Girl.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 28.—The competitors at the National drill Friday were the Indianapolis Light Infantry, who gave a drill that was pronounced decidedly above the average; the Alexandria Light Infantry, who were also a good exhibition: the Jackson (Mich.) Rifles, whose best work was in the manual, but their movements rather defective; the Molineaux Rifles, of New York, who were about an average; the Belknap and San Antonio Rifles, of San Antonio, Tex., of whom it may be said their work was fair; the Sheridan Guards, of Manchester, N. H., whose drill was creditable, and the Lomax Rifles, of Mobile, Ala., who gave the best exhibition of the day in company drill.

The battalion competition then commenced, and for the first time in the history of the militia of this country three crack battalions, the Fifth Rhode Island, the Louisville Legion, and the Washington Light Infantry, were to contest for the supremacy. The Rhode Island battalion, Col. Moran, drilled first, but owing to the fact that their colonel had been absent from his command for months, did not do themselves justice, and will not get a prize.

The Louisville Legion, Majs. Coon and Kelly, came next, and executed every movement of the programme with a precision and skill that elicited almost constant applause. Army officers who inspected the Legion expressed themselves astonished at the perfect condition of the uniforms, guns and equipments of this command.

The Washington boys followed the Legion, and presented a fine appearance; but at the start several costly errors on the part of the officers seemed to show that they were not quite up to the Kentucky men. Their loss of distance, failure to support arms after ployment, soon told against them, and it looked at the conclusion of the drill as though the battalions would rank: Legion first, Washington second, and Rhode Island third. After the drill, Col. Moran, of the Rhode Island battalion, called at the headquarters of the Legion and tendered his congratulations to them, as, in his opinion, the winners of the first prize.

Then followed the individual drill of fifty men, not more than two men from any one company. This was an interesting exhibition of the manual of arms. As fast as a man was found in error he was dropped from the ranks. Finally when the competitors were reduced to three men, Herman G. Staneke, of the San Antonio Rifles, was called to the front, the first prizeman, and the two others, Charles T. Conrad, of the Washington Light Infantry, and James B. Wagner, of the Louisville Legion, continued the competition. Conrad was the next to be called to the front as second prizeman, leaving Wagner the third prize.

The closing event of the day was an exhibition drill by the Lomax Rifles and the Toledo Cadets. Miss Mary C. Voss, the sponsor of the Rifles, went on the field and drilled the company in the manual. Vociferous cheering greeted the fair commander and her command as her orders were given and executed with celerity and precision.

The rifle contests were concluded Friday, the shooting being at 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards. Lieut. Pollard, of the Washington Light Infantry, and Capt. Chisholm, of the Second Maryland, were the prizemen. Pollard made 42, 43, 47, and 40—172, at the respective ranges, and Chisholm, 40, 40, 46, 41—167. Private Crossman, Second Iowa, made 42, 41, 48, and 40—166; Lieu. Hobart, First Michigan, 38,40, 45, and 38—161, and Private Falk, First Minnesota, 39, 42, 39, and 40—160. The three latter men stood third, sixth, and eighth respectively in the contest.

A MINNESOTA ATROCITY.

Murder of a Young Girl in Most Horrible Manner.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., May 28.—A most horrible murder was committed in the township of St. Olaf, twenty miles from here, Thursday. Lillie Field, a 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. A. W. Field, was found in a hog pen with her throat cut. The incision extended from her throat lengthwise, disemboweling her. Mrs. Field and son came to Fergus Falls early Thursday morning, leaving Lillie and a 4-year-old brother at home with the hired man, Nels Olson Holong. About 10 a. m. the boy was sent to a neighbor's, and when he returned his sister and the man were not to be found. Holong's object in committing the crime is not known. After killing the girl he took a rifle belonging to Mr. Field, and has not been seen since. His parents live at Ridgeway station, near Decorah, Iowa.

A Boom for Sault Ste. Marie.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., May 28.—The franchise of the St. Mary's Falls Water Power company has been transferred to a syndicate of capitalists composed of grainmen, millers and bankers from Chicago, Milwaukee, LaCrosse, Watertown, and points in Iowa, who have placed themselves under heavy bonds to push the work of improving the largest water power on the continent to early completion. When this is done Sault Ste. Marie is bound to be the largest manufacturing center in the country and one of the largest cities on the lakes.

Precautions at Halifax Citadel.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 28.—Extraordinary precautions have lately been taken by the military authorities which render admission to the citadel by ordinary citizens more difficult than ever, while even those supposed to have business there are under certain restrictions. The reason for these measures is said to be that newspaper correspondents have been granted so much freedom lately the citadel in the past that they have been enabled to give minute descriptions of the works, guns, etc., and this the authorities do not approve.

Says There's Nothing in It.

OMAHA, Neb., May 28.—Thomas Sturgis secretary of the National Stock Breeders' association, was asked, as he passed through Omaha on his way home to Cheyenne from New York, what his opinion was of the telegram sent out from St. Louis regarding the great cattle combination, and he said: "There is nothing in it. The report has sprung from the efforts in the east to organize the American Cattle Trust company (limited), which I have succeeded in doing."

PRESBYTERIAN UNITY

BLOCKED BY A FENCE WITH A "NIGGER" IN IT.

References to the Matter in the Assemblies at Omaha, Philadelphia and St. Louis—Radical Prohibition Resolution—Reformed Episcopalians on Divorce—The Baptist Gathering at Minneapolis.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 28.—At Friday's session of the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church of North America, the following resolution was presented and referred to a special committee:

We declare against all measures of license or tax as delusive and no way calculated to end the the evils of the liquor traffic, but rather sanctioning, perpetuating and entrenching more strongly the traffic.

That the only effective permanent remedy is through entire prohibition of the manufacture, sale and importation of intoxicating beverages by the states and national government and through constitutional amendments and statutory laws.

Rev. J. A. Todd, of the Reformed Dutch church of North America, in conveying a message of good will, explained the tenets of his church. Moderator Gibson, in replying, said the door of the United Presbyterian church was large enough to admit all Reformed Presbyterians, and he would be glad to see them come in.

Rev. J. C. Galloway, in presenting a resolution of fraternal greeting by the Southern synod, said he would frankly state that the Associate Reformed church, south, had rejected the basis of union for two reasons—first, the agitation by the United Presbyterians of the instrumental music question; second, because of the opposition by a respectable minority to the fourteenth article in the testimony of the United Presbyterian church. The Associate church does not wish to restore slavery. They are glad that incubus is destroyed forever. [Applause.] The opposition comes from the old people who live in the memory of the past, but it is more a matter of sentiment than of principle, and the majority feel that they ought to regard it, and not outrage the feelings of their elder brethren unnecessarily and drive them from the communion. By the year 1900 slavery will have become a mere tradition. The new south has no leaning toward reaction. He asked why the two branches could not unite simply on the Westminster confession as historically interpreted. Ultimately they would have organic union as they now have spiritual union.

The moderator replied in an appreciative vein, taking the ground that there was no need for haste in changing the policy of the church concerning music, and that as to the fourteenth article of testimony, it was the record of the church, but would not stand in the way of ultimate union.

The committee on bills reported that owing to the still unsettled state of opinion as to the propriety of using fermented wine in communion the question can not be wisely reopened.

The Southern Presbyterians.

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—When the Southern Presbyterian general assembly finished its labors Thursday night it had agreed to appoint a committee on organization with the Northern assembly and the great three-days' debate was over. Rev. Dr. Morton Friday morning presented a report. The culture of the members of the assembly, he said, was rubbed from the horny hands and rained from the sweaty brows of the colored people. They had been raised up by the labor of slaves, and it did not become the southern people to ignore them. The church sends missionaries to Japan, China and Brazil, but has let this great body go without the word of God. The northern church has 14,000 communicants among this people and is spreading its work.

When he finished a number of gentlemen arose, claimed the floor, and as rapidly as they got it protested against the statement that the southern church was not doing its duty in this matter. The report was recommitted to the committee for modification.

The committee on foreign correspondence reported as a response to the American houses of bishops and deputies of the Episcopal church's letter on Christian unity an expression of fraternal feeling, but postponing action until 1888.

Among the Baptists.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 28.—Before the annual meeting of the American Baptist Missionary union, the oldest Baptist society, Friday, Rev. Dr. Judson delivered an address, in which he said that so far as missionary work was concerned "violent methods are played out. What we want is systematic benevolence; that is what makes the ladies so successful." The annual report of the treasurer showed that receipts had been for the past year $406,639, and the appropriations $351,590.

Strong Grounds on the Divorce Question.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Resolutions recognizing adultery as the sole ground for divorce, and forbidding ministers to marry persons who have been divorced, except in the case of the innocent party where a divorce has been granted for adultery, were adopted by the general council of the Reformed Episcopal church at Friday's session. The resolutions provide that nothing therein contained shall prevent the remarriage of former husband and wife. The discussion was very brief.

Considering Church Unity.

OMAHA, Neb., May 28.—In the general assembly Friday a committee was appointed to confer with the southern Presbyterians and ascertain the exact position of that body on the policy to be adopted in regard to colored members, and other obstacles in the way of church union. A committee was also appointed to consider the suggestions relating to church unity made by the Protestant Episcopal bishops.

No Law to Cover the Case.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 28.—In the case of the United States against C. A. Auffmordt & Co., of New York city, the supreme court decided in favor of the New York firm Friday. This was a suit brought by the government to recover $721,219, with interest, the full value of imported merchandise alleged to have been fraudulently entered and invoiced at a price lower than its actual market value at the time and place of exportation. Two United States courts had decided that the United States could not recover, no matter what the proof was, because there was no statute covering the case, and the supreme court affirmed the decision.

Doesn't Affect the Stock Yards.

CHICAGO, May 28.—The quarantine declared by the government against Cook county does not affect the stock yards here. The commissioner of agriculture exempts shipments to and from the yards from the regulations requiring a certificate. But this does not exempt any one from the penalty for shipping or offering for shipment diseased cattle or cattle from this county.

A Woman Found Guilty of Murder.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Mrs. Cignareli, the Italian woman who shot and killed her husband last October, was found guilty of murder in the first degree Friday. The defense was that she was protecting herself against a brutal husband.

COMMENT ON COMMERCE.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE REGION OF WHEAT AND CORN.

The Financial Outlook Not So Reassuring—Foreign Trade Balance on the Wrong Side—The Treasury Surplus and the Bank Clearings—The Inter-State Law—Breaking a Cotton Corner.

NEW YORK, May 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The most important news of the week is also the best—that crop prospects have decidedly improved. In view of the great speculations in wheat and cotton, and the false reports carefully circulated by interested parties, it is of service to know that our own agents telegraph from Wisconsin, "Local rains have helped the agricultural districts;" from Minnesota, "Rains throughout the northwest very materially improve crop prospects;" from Kansas City, "Prospects excellent for exceptionally large crops; recent copious rains of great benefit;" from New Orleans, "Crop prospects generally good;" and these are samples of favorable dispatches from nearly all quarters. The fear of injury thus far seems satisfactorily removed, and if harm to wheat or cotton is to come it must be from climatic influences in the future.

This good news for the whole country is disheartening, however, when financial prospects have come to depend upon the success of gigantic speculations for an advance in prices of products. The financial future is also affected by the large receipts of the treasury, amounting for ten months and twenty days to $31,612,867.90 more than receipts for the same part of the previous year. At the same rate the treasury must take from the markets a large sum every month, after the last call for 3 per cent. matures July 1, and Washington dispatches state that the administration will purchase bonds with great reluctance, if at all. During the past week the treasury has taken in $1,550,000 more gold, and $500,000 more currency than it has paid out, with issues of silver certificates only balancing the increase of silver held, and with only $100,000 added to deposits in banks. The last statement of New York banks showed increase of loans and reserves, because Mr. Manning's new bank was for the first time included, but the drain of money to Chicago to meet the needs of speculation, still continues, the return to that point from the interior being retarded by real estate and other activity prevailing.

Foreign commerce does not improve. April's imports exceeded exports by $15,973,975, an excess equalled in one month of 1882, after the partial failure of crops, and in no other month since 1872. New York exports in May fall 11.7 per cent. below those of last year, with imports exceeding those of last year by 17.9 per cent., which would foreshadow an excess of about $14,000,000 in imports this month. The prevailing speculations rather than the inter-state law cause the decline in exports, for shipments of grain by lake and rail are made without regard to local road rates. The inter-state commission has not yet revoked its orders of suspension, but all information tends to the belief that it will do so, and points to a rigid enforcement of the act. Much complaint is made even now, with the rate for distance rule not everywhere enforced, of the transfer of trade from large to smaller towns, and from eastern to interior cities. A great number of suits commenced and complaints filed indicate that cost of transportation will be increased rather than diminished. Earnings are large and encouraging, but a war of rates in the northwest results from milling in transit contracts issued by the St. Paul and other roads, and the competition of Canadian and water routes is felt more severely every week. The report that the Pennsylvania has undertaken to tunnel the Hudson is credited in Philadelphia, where the issue of $11,000,000 stock is believed to be for that purpose.

Accounts of trade from nearly all quarters are decidedly favorable.

An Ingenious Plea for the South.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 28.—Mr. Stahlman made a long argument before the inter-state commerce commission Friday in favor of the permanent suspension of the haul clause of the new law so far as the southern railways are concerned in general, and the Louisville & Nashville in particular. He based his argument on the competition by water those railways have to meet, and in further support of his position argued that the entire south ought to be exempted from operations of the fourth section because its productions differ in character from those of the north. The average production of an acre of land in nine northern states he showed to be 1,063 pounds, and the average in nine southern states only 692 pounds. The weight of that portion shipped to market is, in the north, 1,336 pounds per acre, against 175 pounds per acre in the south, where cotton and tobacco is the staple crop. Thus one mile of railroad in the north gets as much freight as ten miles in the south. Besides this, the roads of the north can put 40,000 pounds of freight on a car, while those of the south can only get 12,000 pounds of their more bulky product into a car.

Breaking a Liverpool Cotton Corner.

LONDON, May 28.—At Manchester, Friday, 250 master cotton spinners held a meeting and passed resolutions pledging to run their mills on half time for a period of eight weeks, beginning Monday, May 30, providing that two-thirds of the mill owners of England would agree to abide by the terms of the resolutions. This action was taken in order to defeat the Liverpool cotton corner by reducing the consumption of stock, of which the Liverpool dealers and speculators are carrying a heavy load. Should the reduction of time go into effect in Manchester on Monday, and it probably will, heavy failures among the Liverpool middlemen may be looked for.

A Decline in the Clearings.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Total bank clearings from thirty-eight cities telegraphed to Bradstreet's aggregate $962,472,360, against $1,087,476,980 last week, a decline of $125,000,000, or 10½ per cent. and as compared with $842,424,972 in the last week of May, 1886, an increase of 14 per cent. Over 90 per cent of the decline in clearings took place at New York and Boston, which report decreases this week of $89,000,000 and $22,000,000, respectively. The decline at Philadelphia was but $3,000,000, San Francisco $4,200,000, and at Baltimore $1,800,000.

The Consolidation Was a Good Thing.

BOSTON, May 28.—The Pacific railway commission took more testimony of Union Pacific directors Friday tending to show that the consolidation with the Kansas Pacific was a good thing. The accounts of the controller are now being examined. This work will probably take several days.

A Dreadful Suspicion.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 28.—Steps have been taken by the Racine election officers to institute legal proceedings against Rev. Olympia Brown Willis on the charge of attempting to stuff the ballot-box. Mrs. Willis is the leader of the woman suffragists of Wisconsin.

Clear the Way

Without loss of time, when the intestinal canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this ailment is prone to become lasting and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the precise remedy to remove the obstruction effectually, but without drenching or weakening the blockaded bowels, a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the most pernicious of the cheap nostrums swallowed by the credulous and misinformed. The fiat of experience, and of the medical fraternity sanctions the claims of this standard aperient. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of remedying and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without a peer.

Old and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal. Sold by Prentice & Evenson O. P. O.

Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic is not a stimulant but a nerve food, restoring nerve force lost by sickness or excessive mental work or the use of liquor, opium morphine or tobacco. It supplies food for nerve tissues and by its gentle operative action, removes all restraint from the secretive organs, hence curing all diseases of stomach and liver. Prentice & Evenson, O. P., will supply the genuine Red Clover Tonic at 50 cents a bottle.

Is Malcolm Ford a Professional?

NEW YORK, May 28.—Malcolm W. Ford, the amateur-champion all-round athlete who has been charged with being a professional, will be one of the representatives of the New York Athletic club at the games of the Schuylkill Navy Athletic club at Philadelphia. He will compete in the 100 and 220-yard runs and the running high and broad jumps. If a protest is made against his taking part, he will bring suit in court for damages and thus force his enemies to prove their assertions, if they can.

Sexton's Hopeless Case.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. On this point a trustworthy medical writer says: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success but many if not most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure certainly cannot be expected from snuffs, powders douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.

DOLLARS AND SENSE!

Are two very good things to have and those who make good use of the latter generally manage to get their share of the former, The sense of saving the cents is pretty generally understood by all, but where and how to save them may not be quite so well and widely known. The morgue of economy and the graveyard of frugality is found in all those stores who ask a few cents more than we do for the purchases of the day.

A SECRET OF MONEY MAKING.

Lies in the solution of the problem of judicious buying; this is accomplished by securing a reliable article at the very lowest price, but where? There is but one "lowest" and once found you may depend upon it that you are on the broad road to riches. Seek until you find it, and in the search don't forget to look us over, for we are making it a point to save at least one cent for every purchaser, no matter how small or trifling the article may be.

AS YOU BUY SO YOU SAVE,

For the larger the article the wider the gap between our figures and the average prices of the day. Try us and you will find we are something to tie to. Our intention is to serve you with the best at a scale of prices mutually beneficial, and at the end of the year we will prove to have

WELCOMED BY TEN THOUSAND.

O'Brien's Friends Come Out Strong at Montreal—The Proceedings.

MONTREAL, Que., May 28.—There was a grand torchlight procession and demonstration in honor of Messrs. O'Brien and Kilbride Friday night. There was a parade through the principal streets and a very enthusiastic assembly of Montreal citizens turned out. The crowd sang "God Save Ireland," and carried transparencies with the words "Home rule," "Welcome O'Brien and Kilbride," and "Success to the Campaign" on them. After the procession had arrived on Chaboillez square, shortly before 10 o'clock, fully 10,000 people listened to speeches by O'Brien and Kilbride, and cheered them lustily.

Resolutions were passed condemning O'Brien's treatment in other Canadian cities and welcoming him back to Montreal. There were no hostile demonstrations and the meeting closed amid great cheering for Parnell, home rule and O'Brien. After the meeting, Messrs. O'Brien and Kilbride were tendered a complimentary banquet in the St. Lawrence hall.

The banquet was very successful and passed off very smoothly. The following toasts were proposed and honored: "Our Guests," replied to by Mr. O'Brien and Kilbride; "Ireland a Nation," "Canada, Our Country," "The Press," and "The Ladies."

Didn't Approve of O'Brien's Mission.

MONTREAL, May 28.—Mr. Hotchkiss, United States consul at Ottawa, who refused the Nationalists the United States flag at the O'Brien meeting on the ground that he "didn't approve of O'Brien's mission," rode in the procession in honor of Lord Lansdowne at Ottawa, and decorated the consulate with the stars and stripes.

OFFICERS OF THE GOOD TEMPLARS.

The Reunited Organization Chooses People from Every Clime.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 28.—The Right Worthy Grand lodge of the Good Templars has been in session here for a week past, the principal business being the reunion of the American and English lodges, between which there has been a split. The reunion was successfully accomplished and in the propositions agreed upon there were several most fully and emphatically abrogating the color line in the organization.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Suit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousand of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Frank Sherer & Co's.

Adjourned Over Decoration Day.

LANSING, Mich., May 28.—Both houses passed a concurrent resolution Friday to adjourn until Tuesday night. The Crosby delinquent tax bill was reinstated on the calendar by a motion to reconsider Thursday's action. The house passed the bill prohibiting the employment of boys under 14 and girls under 16, and the senate debated the high license bill without final action, all the afternoon.

Wedded at Death.

WICHITA, Kan., May 28.—Capt. W. S. White, one of the most prominent and highly-respected citizens of Wichita, for many years editor of The Beacon, died at his home here at 3 o'clock Saturday morning. He was married to his betrothed an hour before his death.

THE RED SEA.

EXPLANATORY NOTES BY S. I. CURTISS, PH. D., D. D.

Lesson IX of the International Series (Second Quarter), for Sunday, May 29. Text of the Lesson, Ex. xiv, 19-31. Golden Text, Isa. xliii, 2.

Death of the First Born—The destroyer passed through the land. In every home of the Egyptians the eldest son was suddenly stricken at midnight, from the firstborn of Pharaoh to the captive in the dungeon. The land resounded with piercing shrieks from one end to the other. All was panic and confusion. Both king and people, overcome with grief and fear, pressed the Israelites to leave in haste, and gladly gave them, in response to their just demands, "jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment."

The Israelites, who had had time to prepare during the preceding four days, formed in a great procession, which kept growing as they went on, until there were 600,000 men, besides women and children and a mixed multitude.

Moses' Difficult Task—Never was intrusted to any man a more difficult task than that which was committed to Moses in the leadership of this multitude of slaves. Nothing less than the displays of God's miraculous power, which are recorded in the history which precedes and follows, could have enabled him to control such a people.

Whither were they going? To the land of Canaan. They knew not that the bones of that generation were to bleach in the wilderness. We cannot determine precisely what course they took. It may be that they began their march on the well known road to the land of the Philistines. God, however, did not design that they should enter Canaan this way. They were likely to be intercepted by the soldiers of the line of fortifications then extending, as Ebers believes, from Pelusium, on the Mediterranean, to Migdol, near the head of the Red sea. Even if they succeeded in passing them they would be exposed to the attack of the Philistines in front and of the Egyptians in the rear. Moses was therefore directed to lead them by the way of the wilderness south to the Red sea. It was necessary that Israel should be trained in the wilderness in a moral, military, civil and religious school before they could be fitted for life in Canaan. Indeed, they had to learn almost everything that is needful for a nation.

The Pursuit—According to Egyptian usage every other activity should have been laid aside for at least seventy days (Gen. l, 3) that the people might devote themselves to mourning. But a most extraordinary event had occurred—over 2,000,000 of slaves who had contributed greatly to the prosperity of the country were leaving it with untold wealth. Pharaoh, therefore, who is believed by most Egyptian scholars to have been Mernephtah, although he had lost the crown prince, was impelled by every consideration of interest to disregard this long period of mourning and to pursue the Israelites. He therefore set out with 600 chosen chariots, besides others, perhaps, of an inferior sort, in pursuit of the Israelites, who he believed were shut up in the wilderness (Ex. xiv, 3).

We may well imagine how terrified the Hebrews were when they saw the well trained army of Egypt coming against them. Probably they had had no military experience. With bitter sarcasm they ask Moses if it was because there were no graves in Egypt (the land of tombs) that he had led them away to die in the wilderness. They thought, therefore, that it would have been far better for them to die as slaves in Egypt than to perish in the wilderness; but God had other plans for them.

THE LESSON.

The Pillar of Cloud (vs. 19, 20)—The angel of Jehovah had been leading Israel in a pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night. He now goes behind them and interposes the pillar between the Israelites and the Egyptians, which is light for God's chosen people, but darkness for the Egyptians.

The Miracle (v. 21)—The Israelites now come at evening to the head of the Red sea. Death, to the human eye, seems to lie before them and death is behind them. But Moses, in accordance with the divine command, stretches out his hand over the sea. A strong east wind, lasting all night, lashes the waters away from the sands and leaves a dry path. The miracle here does not seem to consist so much in the means used as perhaps in the exact adaptation of natural means to open a way for the Israelites at the right time.

Vs. 22, 23. The people recognized God's hand, and, whatever fears they may have had, took this as the only means of escape. It is not necessary for us to suppose that the waters rose up in a heap on the right hand and the left, but that there was perhaps a pathway between the northern part of the Red sea and the adjoining Bitter lakes lying just above, which served as a rampart. (Compare Nahum iii, 8.)

The Egyptians in their eagerness did not seem to foresee the possible danger of pursuing the Israelites. They followed close on the rear of the fleeing hosts. The narrative does not definitely say that Pharaoh joined in the pursuit, although it might seem to imply it. We know two things about Mernephtah; that he took good care not to expose himself to too great danger, and that he died in his bed.

It must have been an awful night for the Israelites. Women were screaming and children crying as they fled quickly before the advancing host.

Deliverance (vs. 24, 25)—But in the morning, when perhaps the hearts of the Israelites were beginning to faint, deliverance came. God appeared to terrify the Egyptians. He is spoken of as looking on them through the pillar of cloud. Whether this means, as some think, that the dazzling light of the pillar of fire smote on their faces, we do not know. He took off their chariot wheels, or perhaps better, as some versions read, bound them (Revised Version, margin), so that they would not turn. It was then that the Egyptians felt the hand of God and gave way to fear, proposing to flee because God was fighting for Israel.

Destruction of the Egyptians (vs. 27, 28)—At the Lord's command Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and it returned to its wonted flow (Revised Version, margin). In vain the Egyptians sought to flee. On came the roaring tide and covered them in the waters, so that there did not remain one.

Vs. 29, 30. The author once more tells how Israel passed through the sea, and how, when the morning dawned, they saw the bodies of the Egyptians which had been washed upon the shore.

V. 31. Israel recognized God's hand in this great deliverance; they feared him and believed in the Lord and in his servant Moses. This was an important result; but we shall see from the subsequent history how easily they forgot God, and even the great service which their heroic leader had rendered. Nothing less than such a great deliverance could make an adequate impression on the minds of an undisciplined and ignorant people.

POINTS TO BE REMEMBERED.

1. When God bids us go forward we should obey, although to human sight the sea is in front and the enemy behind.

2. A miracle may take place not only through the suspension of natural laws, but also in accordance with them, although the result produced is extraordinary. God's power is supreme in either case.

3. The path which through faith in God leads his people to deliverance, may through presumption lead their enemies to death.

4. It is said by some that it makes no difference what a man believes in if he is only sincere. The Israelites, believing in God's word to Moses, were saved. The Egyptians, sincerely believing that they were in the right way, were lost.

5. We should be sure that we are in the path of God's appointment and then go ahead.—Sunday School World.

THE MAXWELL CLAIM SETTLED.

A Rehearing of the Case Refused by the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 28.—In the case of the petition for a rehearing of the Maxwell land case, recently decided by the supreme court, the petition was denied by the supreme court Friday. Justice Miller, who delivered the opinion of the court, says: All the points suggested in the petition have been carefully considered by the court. The case has been pending in the courts since 1882, and on account of its importance was advanced for hearing in the supreme court. The arguments on both sides were unrestricted in point of time. The court was thoroughly impressed with the importance of the case, not only on account of the extent of the grant and its value, but also on account of its involving principles which will become precedents in cases of a similar nature now rapidly increasing in number. It was therefore given a most careful examination, and the petition for rehearing has had a similar attentive consideration. The result is that the court is entirely satisfied that the grant as confirmed by the action of congress is a valid grant; that the survey and patent issued upon it, as well as the original grant, are entirely free from any fraud on the part of the grantees; and that the decision could be no other than that of the circuit court below, which was affirmed by the supreme court of the United States.

The Illinois Legislature.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., May 28.—Both houses of the legislature adjourned Friday until Tuesday. The senate passed the bill for the maintenance of public parks by general instead of special assessment, and the interlocking-switch bill, and sent to third reading the bill to prevent any but residents of a county from acting as deputy sheriffs in the county, and the bill to regulate the sale of explosives. The house concurred in the senate amendments to the bill for a home for the blind at Chicago. The house revenue bill was passed, as was the bill making fifty pounds a bushel of sweet potatoes. The bill to elect instead of appoint the trustees of the Illinois Industrial university was sent to third reading.

The great sources of the extensive curative range of Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic are in its great blood purifying qualities and its gentle aperative action, thereby removing all restraint from the secretive organs, curing promptly and thoroughly dyspepsia, costiveness, bad breath, piles, pimples, low spirits, sick and nervous headache, ague, malarial and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. The most delicate stomach accepts it with relish. Price, fifty cents, of Prentice & Evenson, O. P.

A Child's Skin

Ears and Scalp Covered with Eczematous scabs and sores Cured by Cuticura.

My little son, aged eight years, has been afflicted with Eczema of the scalp, and at times a great portion of the body, ever since he was two years old. It began in his ears, and extended to his scalp, which became covered with scabs and sores, and from which a sticky fluid poured out, causing intense itching and distress, and leaving his hair matted and lifeless. Underneath these scabs the skin was raw like a piece of beefsteak. Gradually the hair came out and was destroyed, until but a small patch was left at the back of the head. My friends in Peabody know how my little boy has suffered. At night he would scratch his head until his pillow was covered with blood. I used to tie his hands behind him, and in many ways try to prevent his scratching, but it was no use he would scratch. I took him to the hospital and to the best physicians in Peabody without success. About this time, some friends, who had been cured by the Cuticura Remedies prevailed upon me to try them. I began to use them on the 15th of January last. In seven months every particle of the disease was removed. Not a spot or scab remains on his scalp to tell the story of his suffering. His hair has returned, and is thick and strong, and his scalp as sweet and clean as any child's in the world. I cannot say enough to express my gratitude for this wonderful cure by the Cuticura Remedies, and wish all similarly afflicted to know that my statement is true and without exaggeration. CHAS McKAY

Oct 5, 1885. Peabody, Mass.

I have seen Mr. McKay's boy when badly afflicted with the Eczema. He was a pitiful sight to look at. I know that he had tried our best physicians, and did all a father could do for a suffering child, but availed nothing. I know that the statement he has made you as regards the curing of his boy by your Cuticura Remedies are true in every particular.

WILLIAM McCARTHY,

33 Foster St. Peabody, Mass.

I do not know of any instance of which the Cuticura Remedies have failed to produce satisfactory results. I believe I have sold more of them than of any other skin remedies I have ever handled during the thirty-three years of my experience as a druggist.

A Word About Catarrh.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasure of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head it assaults the membranous lining and envelopes the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. Sanford's Radical Cure by Inhalation and by Internal administration have never failed; even when the disease had made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell and taste have been recovered, and the disease thoroughly driven out."

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, neatly wrapped in one package, with full directions; price, $1.00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

BRIEFLETS.

—No drill of the Janesville Cadets will be held on Monday evening.

—Herman Wisch wears a flannel about his throat. His friends say he has the croup.

—Bunches of pond lillies begin to appear on the street. Most of them come from near Afton.

—An extra board has been put along the top of the upper dam, to guard against low water.

—Post office will be closed on Monday May 30th, Decoration Day, from 10 o'clock a. m. to 5 p. m.

—In the case of the Norwegian Plow Company against Hanthorn a verdict was given for the plaintiff.

—Dr. C. A. Miner has just commenced his second year of successful practice in Janesville. Read his ad in another column.

—Petitions asking the Home Mastodons to appear for the benefit of John Hay and Andrew Downs are being generally signed.

—"Honesty," owned by Geo. Collier, of this city, is entered in the 3:00 and 2:38 classes for the Rockford trotting races, June 1-3.

—Those that put the most faith in a scandal before proof is found are usually the ones that are least careful about such things themselves.

—Guns and equipments for the Janesville Cadets have arrived. Before long Captain Kinney expects to have a prize drill between his company and the Guards.

—Judge Bennett ordered the answer in the case of W. S. Jeffris against L. N. Williamson, stricken out as frivolous. The case concerns the payment of a note and is to be settled.

—Workmen were busy to-day bridging over the crossing of Jackson and Milwaukee streets where it is damaged by the car track. This will make the street reasonably passable.

—Justice Prichard was busied to-day with the case of the Doty Manufacturing company against Herman and Paulina Schultz. The suit was to recover for a tank bought by one of the defendants.

—The good people of the Presbyterian society held their social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wheeler, second ward, last evening. There was a large attendance, and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

—One of our state exchanges says very truthfully: Janesville has a rich morsel of scandal which is being rolled from tongue to tongue on the sly. Bad as it is nothing can be gained by giving publicity to the alleged facts.

—To-night anyone that wants to see Mary's little lamb, can be gratified. One window of the Star on South Main street has been filled with moss and a very lively bit of spring lamb will occupy it. The effect will be striking.

—The Rev. Dr. Hodge, of this city, who is now attending the Baptist Association at Minneapolis, officiated at the funeral of Miss Lottie Rockwood in St. Paul just previous to the remains being sent to Janesville. Dr. Hodge officiated at the funeral ceremony of the father and mother of the deceased in this city some years ago.

—Marshal Hogan worked hard to-day running down the Milwaukee street property owners. He was getting names on the petition to pave Milwaukee street from High street to the bridge and met with fair success. The petition, however, was little more than a formality as the pavement will be laid whether all the property owners ask it or not.

—Miss Fannie Vankirk last evening, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vankirk, Milton avenue, entertained a large company of young people in the most pleasant and happy manner, the party being given in honor of her guests, Miss Ingersoll, of Peoria, Ill., Miss Barge, of Dixon, Ill., and Miss Riddell, of Milwaukee.

—This morning Agent Croft's well regulated passenger depot looked like a kindergarten. There were youngsters inside, outside and pretty nearly all over Miss Jennie Metcalf's scholars from the second grammar room of the first ward were to spend the day at Clear Lake and the depot was where they met. The youngsters started soon after eight o'clock, going in buggies and carryalls. Their parting salute as they rolled out of town made it seem as though they expected to enjoy themselves.

—"Heavenly hash," with a burnt cork accompaniment, made up the attraction at the Court Street M. E. Sunday school room last evening. There was a large gathering and all seemed pleased. The mysterious delicacy that proved such a drawing card was a toothsome compound of bananas, oranges, strawberries, cream and the makers themselves only know what else. It was served by a talented corps of "cullud gemmen" who also dispensed ice cream and cake. The affair was a success and the receipts were larger than anyone expected.

—Says the Edgerton Reporter: The position of the Janesville Gazette in refusing to publish the testimony given in the circuit court the past week in the case of State vs. Mrs. Jenkins, as being unfit for family reading will be commended by all people who love a clean newspaper. It is surprising that the Recorder should have been so far lost to all sense of decency that it should prostitute its columns to the disgusting details related in this trial. The matter spread before its readers must have been shocking in the extreme.

—"For an amateur company," says the Edgerton Reporter, "The Home Mastodons outrank anything we ever saw brought together. The programme was fully equal, if not superior, to that of three-quarters of the traveling shows. The selections throughout were of a fine order while the fun possessed the advantage of being fresh and appropriate. Without attempting to particularize we can truly say that the Home Mastodons gave a tip-top good show, and the people of Edgerton would be pleased to have them come again."

—The programme committee endeavored to secure Mr. Ogden H. Fethers to deliver the oration on the Fourth of July, but he was unable to comply with their request. The Recorder or one of its compositors gets Mr. Fethers name confounded with that of Oscar F. Nowlan, who is to be chief marshal on that day. It will be regretted by very many of our citizens that they cannot hear Mr. Fethers on the Fourth. His oratory on such occasions has a charm about it that commands admiration and it would have been an exceeding great pleasure to our citizens to hear an oration from him. But the stock of orators like Mr. Fethers is soon closed out for anniversaries of this kind and the committee spoke too late.

—The Beloit Free Press says "It is claimed:—That when a Janesville "drunk" is brought before the judge in that city, he is given a half a dollar and discharged if he claims in extenuation that he was 'shellbratin' the shroo train.'

——That the latest "fad" of Janesville ladies is the wearing of necklaces made of nickels linked together after having been run over by the THROUGH train."

——That "through train" picnic parties are raging in Janesville. The picnicers, loaded with baskets of cheese, cake and things, take the "Nine Twenty" south, get off at Tiffany, sit around on the platform until the "Six Thirty" comes along when they return home."

—A dispatch from Watertown last evening, to the Milwaukee Sentinel, says: Shortly before 7 o'clock this morning the engine of a wild freight train going east on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway collided at the junction with the engine which had just left the round house to be attached to the Watertown passenger train. Both engines were thrown parallel across the track and although neither was much injured, it required about two hours to get them back on the track, several trains meanwhile being delayed over time. James Little, the engineer of the passenger train, was not on his engine at the time and hence is held to blame for the accident. As has been the custom heretofore the "wiper" was taking the engine to its position.

—Some of the boys that were darkey waiters in the "heavenly hash" brigade begin to wish they hadn't been. Grease paint, such as minstrels use, could not be found in the city, and lamp-black mixed with glycerine took its place. When the boys came to wash up, they used a pail full of hard water without soap. Their success was only partial. From all appearances each face had been marked by yellow fever, and then seasoned in a smoke house. The lamp-black had worked in until nothing short of six months in a Turkish bath factory would take it out. A harder looking lot of amateur darkies never came out of a dressing room. They were so hard looking, in fact, that Marshal Hogan followed one of them nearly home under the suspicion that he was a highway robber in disguise. To-day the drugstores did a rushing business in alcohol, emery cloth and face powder so that several young men with faces spotted like a circus pony might be in shape to see their best girls Sunday night.

All societies are asked to appear upon the streets in costume. All societies, factories, firms, and individuals are requested to inform the committee as early as possible, of their intention to participate. Any aid or advice will be cheerfully given. We would throw out the hint to our military companies, Concordia society, Home Mastodons and all our young men, that there is fun particularly adapted to them, to be had in the afternoon's celebration.

THE ROLL CALL.

"Sound the roll call!" At the tap of the drum,
Few are the comrades that loyally come.
Like wind-swept reeds on a river's low banks,
Broken and bruised they have dropped from the ranks.

"Captain G— C— of the 13th brigade?"
In a lone valley his damp grave we made;
A mother's loved spirit waiting him there,
Heavenward bore him on soft wings of prayer.

"Corporal G—?" God knows where he sleeps,
The mists of the hilltops over him creep,
Unheard the drumbeat, the muster and call,
High on the mountain, the clouds are his pall.

"Private N— H—?" in the hospital walls,
Wounded so cruelly by shells and balls,
Gently and tenderly we laid him down,
But Death took his cross and gave him the crown.

"Private John A—?" Though his face wore a smile,
His heart was sore bleeding for home all the while;
In the lone wilderness, his grave we made,
Neath the dark pines and the juniper's shade.

The low hanging storm-clouds were dropping their tears,
The vale and the shadows for him had no fears
And do you remember his radiant face,
The grim fight with Death, on his brow left no trace.

God knoweth best, but the night of our pain,
Grew dark and darker with stormclouds and rain;
Through all the sunshine of happier years,
Dark seem our trials, our sorrows and fears.

"Sound the roll call!"
Till o'er the sad story,
Of brave spirits fallen, victories won,
Grant them due honor,
The guerdon of glory,
Safe from the tumult, their warfare is done.

Sound the roll call!
Hear ye low responses?
Myriad voices from over the tide,
Happy brave spirits
Of comrades and brothers
Shoulder to shoulder stand close by our side.

Sound the roll call!
Though sad tears are falling;
Crown our brave boys with the laurel and bay,
Ere long in vain
Will the drumbeat be calling,
Soon the last veteran will fall by the way.

A TOUCHING EPISODE.

A G. A. R. veteran relates the following incident: "One of our Janesville boys was taken sick soon after entering camp at Memphis. From the first his illness was serious, and so homesick was the poor boy that he pleaded for the constant attendance of his Janesville friends. Suffering with agonizing pain he cried like a child for home and mother, and when death hovered near he said 'Oh, must I die in a strange land! Be sure and bury me in Oak Hill.' He died, and was sent home to sleep over yonder."

Memorial day is approaching. If we have lost no near friends in the dreadful struggle, in memory of some poor homesick lad who died far away under stranger skies, bring flowers, heartsease and forget-me-not, and lay them upon the fresh green sod. Perchance ministering spirits will bedew their soft petals with loving tears. And forget not those who died upon the battlefield and were buried in trenches where they fell "unhonored and unsung." Few there were who were not enshrined in the love of somebody's heart.

There's a page in the nation's story,
That is written in lines of blood;
Of nameless ones, crown them with glory,
They are scattered on field and flood.

Aye, grant them the meed of remembrance
Those chivalric brave knights of old,
Though their dust lies nameless, unhonored,
Their memory will never grow cold.

TOO MUCH HORSE-TRAINING.

To the Editor.

The residents of the first ward are the unwilling subjects of a nuisance which the city authorities seem to take no steps to abate. The intersections of the streets are a favorite resort of a horse-trainer who industriously plies his vocation to the extreme discomfort and inconvenience of all persons whose daily duties take them down town. If the safety of foot travelers is not endangered by the evolutions of unmanageable colts, such individuals are not only in constant apprehension, but they are covered with clouds of dust, which are very dense and annoying, while vehicles have to take long detours to avoid collisions and smash-ups. All that part of the city lying between the corn exchange and the passenger stations of the railroads, seems to be devoted to the horse-training business. No particular place appears to be devoted to the purpose; but the professor evidently believes that the people have no rights which he is bound to respect, and he pursues his occupation wherever the fancy seizes him. The nuisance is really unpardonable and unendurable, and the residents of the first ward will be grateful if some one in authority will put a stop to it.

AJAX.

A "Kaffee Klatsch"

Will be given by the Rectory society of Christ church, at the residence of Judge John R. Bennett, Milton avenue, on Tuesday evening, May 31st, at 6 o'clock. No admission fee will be charged. Supper 25 cents. The entertainments given by this society are steadily gaining in popularity, and this is owing to the fact that they give a nice supper and pleasant reception; and all find that they never tire of adding some new feature for the entertainment of their guests; nor will next Tuesday evening be an exception, as the title indicates there will be something unique, and if we can judge from the broad smile that greets our query as to what a "Kaffee Klatsch" might be, we would say it will be worth while going to find out. The supper will be served at ten minutes past six at which the Judge and Mrs. Bennett will preside. The "Klatsch" will continue through the evening at which the guests may preside. The house will be at the latter's disposal, and as every article therein will be touched by a magic wand the young people as well as the old can enjoy the "Klatsch" without danger of the surroundings.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o clock this morning the thermometer indicated 53 degrees above zero. Clear with north wind. At one o'clock p. m., the register was 84 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with north wind. For corresponding hours one year ago the register was 58 and 77 degrees above zero.

Flowers.

The W. H. Sargent Woman's Relief Corps extend a cordial invitation to all the ladies to meet with them Saturday and Monday mornings to arrange the crosses and flowers for Memorial Day.

ROCK COUNTY TROUT.

On Memorial day one year ago Ex-Sheriff H. L. Skavlem and Mr. F. F. Pierson deposited 10,000 "Rainbow" or "Rocky Mountain" trout fry in the Keithline Creek, town of Newark, the fry being obtained at the state fish hatchery at Madison. This fry was placed in the creek simply as an experiment, none believing that the fry would prosper in our lime water. No more attention was paid the matter until yesterday, when Messrs. Skavlem and Pierson visited the creek to ascertain if any of the trout had survived. They were most agreeably surprised to find them doing well, and brought back a specimen,—a little beauty 6½ inches long—which they put into alcohol and now have on exhibition at the Angleworm club rooms. Next week 15,000 trout fry will be placed in the Newark creeks. Mr. Skavelem, who is a native of that town, says that there are over fifty miles of creek in Newark in which trout can be successfully raised, and he proposes to do his share in placing stock therein. It is an easy matter to obtain the fry from the state hatchery and there is no reason why the many little brooks of the county should not be well stocked with trout. By so doing it will only require two or three years' time to make Rock county as noted for trout streams as any place in the state. There's lots of fun for the anglers.

"Nic" Schneider's Testimony.

CHICAGO, May 28.—The jury in the boodle case was occupied all Friday in listening to the testimony of "Nic" Schneider, the ex-boiler-maker who has turned state's evidence and is now "giving away" his former partners and friends. Schneider's testimony was mainly an amplification of what he stated Thursday. He identified a good pile of bills the boodlers had presented to the county, and said that the aggregate amount of the bills he had rendered was about $92,000. He explained various accounts and gave details as to the connection of McDonald and McGarigle with the financial transactions mentioned. During the afternoon the defense began its cross-examination.

The President at Saranac Lake.

UPPER SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., May 28.—The presidential party arrived at Prospect house at 7 p. m. Friday, having driven out in buckboards from Paul Smith's, where they left the train at 3 p. m. They are quartered in Dr. Dunton's cottage, near Prospect house. The trip by rail was not very eventful. Short stops were made at Rutland, Burlington, Manchester, St. Albans and Malone, and the president shook hands with as many persons in the crowds as could be reached from the car platform where he stood. There were no speeches.
